NEW MEXICO
COMMISSION
ON THE STATUS
of Women

215 CENTRAL AVE NW, SUITE 220, BOX 8
ALBUQUERQUE, NM 87102
JENIFER.GETZ@STATE.NM.US
NMCSW.ORG

New Mexico Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) – New Commissioner information

- Commissioners serve without pay, however travel, meals and lodging are covered when it has been approved in advance following the NM Procurement and Travel Codes.

- The CSW holds a monthly meeting on the second Thursday of each month. Currently and for the foreseeable future, these meetings are virtual.

- Commissioners may choose to server on the following committees, which will typically meet once a month or as needed.
    - Finance
    - Legislative
    - Women's Summit
    - Communications
    - Ad-Hoc committees based on program work

- Commissioners may choose to host one or more community events in their regions. All expenses are covered by the Commission for these events but can be paid for by the commissioner as a donation to the CSW if so desired.

- Commissioners may be asked to speak publicly about their areas of expertise to the commission, legislators, or other stakeholders.

- Commissioners may choose to travel to participate in CSW or legislative events. This is strictly voluntary and reimbursement for these expenses must be preapproved and follow state Travel and Procurement codes.

- Commissioners are encouraged to engage with their regional stakeholders and report back to the commission on the needs of their communities.

- Commissioners are asked to share news of importance to the women of New Mexico from their regions. This news will be shared on the CSW social media sights.